Why did Sir E. W. Beatty and Mr. Jackson wait all those years to get together? The answer is simple. It was expected the two men would meet in London, and now they are trying to make us believe it is to the interest of the cause to meet under private cover.

It is a fact that the cause could be saved by amalgamation, but we are told that the cause would be lost. It is a fact that the cause would be lost if the cause was not saved. It is a fact that the cause would be lost if the cause was not saved.

GERMAN COLONIES IN THE EAST

Discussion of Colonies Not for Britain Alone But Nations to Discuss

Report From Berlin Says Colonial Demand of Germany Flanders Hitler's Speech in Reichstag on Saturday Last

CONSULTATION OF POWERS

German Attitude Said to be That Colonies Were Unlawfully Annexed. Close of The Great War Under Versailles Treaty

London, Feb. 3.—(AP)—The cabinet met today to consider Chancellor Hitler's Saturday address to the Reichstag, while one source reported Germany may demand that Britain return the colonies she gained from the British at the end of the Great War.

Hitler's speech, it was learned, has been under almost constant study by foreign experts since Saturday.

The government, it was understood, is considering making explanation of certain points.

It was said, likely would point out that it would solve the Reich's closely knit colonial and economical problems.

The blunt meaning of Chancellor Hitler's speech before the Reichstag last Saturday was expected to be conveyed to Foreign Minister Brüning today by Joachim Von Ribbentrop, Hitler's Ambassador to London.

Any discussion of colonies, however, informed quarters declared, could only be carried on with Great Britain alone.

Since holders of former German territories include France, Japan, New Zealand, Australia, South Africa and Belgium, they pointed out all would have to be consulted on the framework of any settlement of German demands for return of her colonies.

Demand Emphasized in Memorandum

Berlin, Feb. 3.—(CP-Havas)—Germany's colonial demands have been embodied in a diplomatic memorandum addressed to the British government, it was reported here today.

Joachim Von Ribbentrop, the German Ambassador, was believed to have had the document with him when he left for London last night.

Although unconfirmed, reports persisted that Von Ribbentrop had instructions to open negotiations with the British government at once.

Nazi sources described Germany's colonial stand as having been fixed in Hitler's Reichstag speech of Saturday and previously by his speech at the Nuremberg party congress.

Nazi sources made the return of the colonies awarded by the Versailles Treaty to Great Britain, the Dominions, France and Japan, on grounds that their annexation was unjust, these sources said.

A black and white illustration of a woman in a polka-dot dress and a man in a suit standing in a crowded room. The woman is in the foreground, looking towards the viewer. The man is behind her, looking down. The background is filled with other people, some of whom are wearing hats and coats, suggesting a busy, possibly outdoor or semi-outdoor, setting. The style is reminiscent of mid-20th-century magazine illustrations.

FISHERMEN DEVISE INGENIOUS WAY TO MAKE CHANNEL

Raise Level of West Lake Several Feet by Temporarily Damming It

USE DYNAMITE

When Dam is Blown Out Serging Waters Gouge Channel

Visitors coming to West Lake, British Columbia, from tributary streams, have noted the rise in the water level has been accomplished by a dam of logs and brushwork, which will be blown out by dynamite.

The dam, which is about 100 feet long, was built across the mouth of the lake, and will be blown out by dynamite. The water level will rise several feet, and the surge of water will gouge a channel in the lake bed.

The dam was built by the local fishermen, who are anxious to improve the channel for the purpose of making it easier for boats to pass.

Lewiston, N.Y., Feb. 9 (AP) — Bjarne Klausen reported last night he had succeeded in finding the grave of Mrs. Catherine Hunter, reputed here to have been the inventor of the cocktail.

Klausen made his report to the "Generators," an organization of "white supremacists."

Tavistock, Ont., Feb. 9 (AP) — Unable to walk and because of use of only one finger, Miss Lucile Lemp came to the aid of a blind man and wrote Braille on a typewriter.

She enjoys bridge. Her ambition is to be a linguist.

THE DUBURK

Events have moved so swiftly in the past year that it seems no wonder that His Majesty King George V will be unable to attend the coronation of King George VI and Queen Elizabeth for next winter. Those whose memory goes back a quarter of a century remember the story of the great events of the coronation of King George V and Queen Mary.

Britain is extending the self-control of India as the peoples of that country develop towards the democratic form of government and as they qualify for the significant place which Great Britain plays for them in the world. That the Durbar would have a great influence on the minds of the peoples of that empire is well known. Though the announcement has been made that the King and Queen will be unable to attend the Durbar, the Durbar has expressed the hope that the Durbar may be delayed so that they may be able to attend the Durbar.

SOLVING LIFE

In the mystery of life to be solved Dr. Nels Roby, Professor of Philosophy at the University, declared it will be when science solves the mystery of the interaction of the forces of nature. Science is a simple thing, for science has not means by which to study the interaction of the forces of nature. The interaction of the forces of nature is a simple thing, for science has not means by which to study the interaction of the forces of nature.

Liberal Protestantism "has been more and more throwing away the techniques, methods and observations which spiritual life is nurtured and disciplined," the Rev. Dr. Coffin said.

Some expert in spiritual technique. That technique is very simple. Any individual may discover the secret of becoming a great-Christened possessing spiritual power by following this simple procedure: "Let God change his life." "Make a complete surrender to God." "To himself, pure, unselfish and practical the spirit of love." "Make restitution to all you have wronged."

"Seek to follow the guidance of God in all things large or small." "This technique may be used for any one who will sincerely try it."

Summing the events of the day, the home forum was presented by the same group under the evening name, James Gordon Waller and Gay. Supervised by The Ladies' Aid.

REMEMBERING What do you hold for her fledgling brood. New land, glimpsed through nostalgic tears? What do you know of her high, sweet hopes? What do you rock of those crowding Parvanees echoing rustles fast, Footling through and the charged roar. Ah! for the lifting bells of hills And the dear, small house with its wide-awning door.

An Irish Letter

By Hugh Curran
The Irish people have still got the old significance as a nation. They are still the people of the market place in rural Ireland. They are still the people of the market place in rural Ireland. They are still the people of the market place in rural Ireland.

Under the existing constitution the official language is Irish, but this is equally recognized. The fact is, however, that the debate is not a debate. The debate is not a debate. The debate is not a debate.

A well-known journalist has said that a new development in the Irish language is the fact that the Irish people are now using the English language in their daily lives.

Dr. De Valera himself has a point of view on this. He has a point of view on this. He has a point of view on this.

SUN LIFE ASSETS
UP 70 PER CENT
DURING YEAR 1936Financial Statement For 1936 Is Very Strong

Montreal, Feb. 10.—With an increase in assets of over seventy million dollars in 1936 and a grand total of more than seven hundred and seventy million dollars, the highest in the Company's history, the Annual Report of the Sun Life Insurance Company of Canada, recently released by Arthur B. Wood, President and Managing Director, reveals a statement which is one of the bright spots of the insurance and financial world. The statement is not only interesting because of the indications of the growth of this company, but also because it establishes beyond the inherent strength and stability of the fundamental principles of the insurance. Since 1929 the assets of the Sun Life of Canada have increased by over two hundred and twenty million dollars and the growth of the substantial increase in the assets of the company during the last twelve months of 1936, a definite increase in the assets of the company has not been denied. A special interest in this statement is the fact that the company has been able to maintain its position of leadership in the insurance industry since 1929.

Surviving of All Exhibits Only Way to Exterminates
Pests

London, Feb. 10.—There is a plague of moths among the treasures of the British Museum, and the authorities are striving day and night to preserve their treasures and exhibits.

Within the precincts of this world-famous museum, which is the largest and most important of its kind in the world, there has been a powerful depredation by the pest.

On the 10th of the month, the pest was found to be in the collection of the British Museum, and the authorities are striving day and night to preserve their treasures and exhibits.

CANADA'S BLIND INDUSTRIOUS

Canada's blind are industrious. A glance at the last annual statement which has just been received shows that 201 men and women are operating commercial stands and vending machines in various parts of Canada and total earnings amounted to over $130,000 in the year. They are making a livelihood, a proof of the spirit and initiative of the Canadian blind. In addition to their efforts to make the blind self-supporting as far as possible, their efforts are aimed to help the blind who are unable to support themselves by their own efforts. They are as much benefited by their work and are as much benefited by the work of others as the blind who are unable to support themselves by their own efforts.

Another proof of the spirit and initiative of the Canadian blind is their efforts to make the blind self-supporting as far as possible. They are as much benefited by their work and are as much benefited by the work of others as the blind who are unable to support themselves by their own efforts.

Marmora and District

Marioners—The regular meeting of St. Paul's Men's Club was held in the parish hall on Wednesday evening with A. B. Baird, entomologist of the Parasite Laboratory at Beltsville, operated by the Dominion Department of Agriculture, as guest speaker of the evening.

Members of St. Paul's Ladies' Guild and a few other invited guests made the attendance high over 60. The president W. J. Ottwell was in the chair and Murray Deag, A. B. Caldwell opened the meeting with prayer. After an instrumental offertory by Fred Inyard and Bert Kouri, Mr. Baird was introduced to the audience and gave an interesting and instructive talk on parasites and insects. He quoted Biblical passages to show that in the past, many centuries before the coming of Christ, the human race found insect life something to cope with. He then said that in more recent times, poisons have been considered the most effective way of subduing pests. But in still recent years it had been considered much more advisable to keep insects in control by the release of large numbers of local species of parasitic insects which have recently migrated to Canada to thrive unhindered by parasites which held them in control in their native countries. The entomologists of this country have been able in late years to get in touch with entomologists of other countries and in the course of the last few years have been able to look after the insect immigrants. A question period was given to the audience and a very interesting discussion followed. In answer to one question regarding the Peach district in Niagara Mr. Baird dealt with the saving of the crop due to introduction of parasites to the peach orchard of pa-his own accomplishments and with William Hart and Bert Kourt gave the following summary: Upon motion of Rural Dean A. B. Caldwell, seconded by H. B. Smith, vice-president, the club extended their thanks to Mr. Baird and others taking part in the program. Following these selections, an exhibition of insects and parasites was given by Mr. Baird and the following were in attendance: Mrs. J. A. Baird, Mrs. J. P. Brown is spending a few days in Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Campbell, Ontario spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Linton. Mr. D. A. Paxton of Toronto spent Tuesday evening in the village. W. C. Spay is spending a few days in Toronto.
